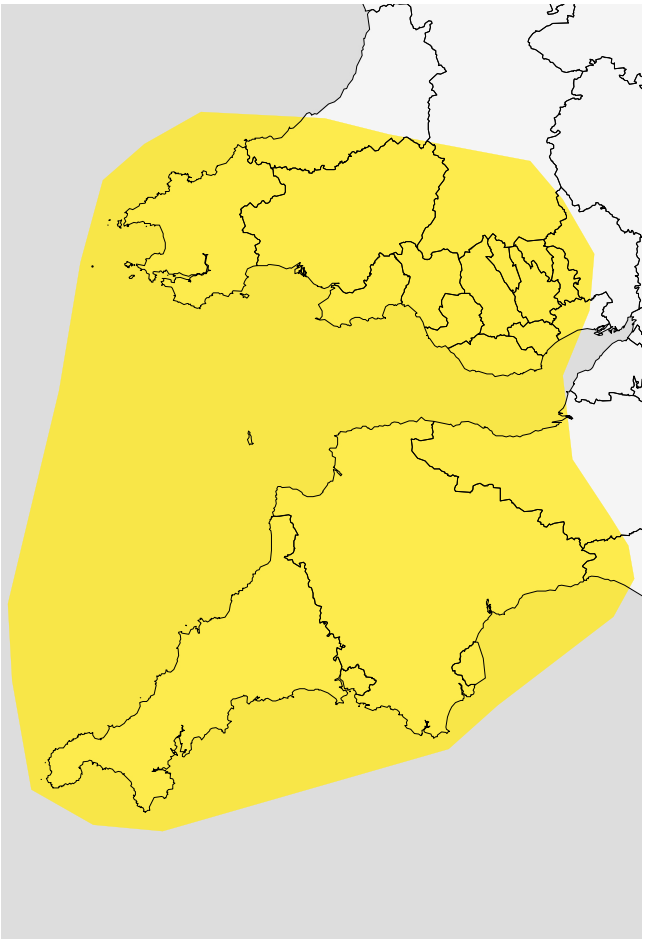
Yellow warning
Rain

Between
00:15 Wed 7 Nov 2018 and
12:00 Wed 7 Nov 2018



Heavy rain is expected to affect south Wales and southwest England early on Wednesday.

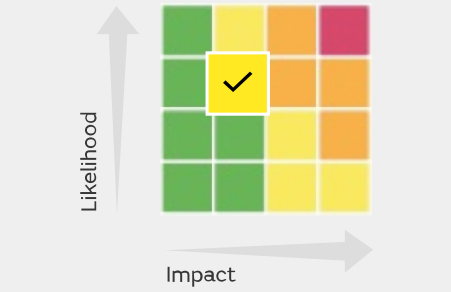
What to expect

- Flooding of a few homes and business is likely
- Bus and train services probably affected with journey times taking longer
- Spray and flooding on roads probably making journey times longer

Further details

Persistent, and at times heavy rain will develop over parts of south Wales and southwest England into the early hours of Wednesday, easing later on Wednesday morning.

During this period 15-25 mm of rain is expected widely with totals of 40-60 mm over some hills exposed to the strong southerly winds. Some intense bursts of rain, as well as autumn leaf fall blocking drains, increases the likelihood of impacts.



Medium likelihood of low impacts
